WARRIORS & NEPTUNES CAME OPPOSITION

League Division One Champions Warriors took Warwick University apart to grab a second victory, and this was followed by the slamming of newly promoted Tamworth Tigers by the Area's newcomers Northampton Neptunes. GAC against Tile Hill was postponed with only one official who would not take the game alone.

Aylesford were first to enter Onley Prison and they overcame Outlaws' 20 point handicap start to emerge with the points.

In Division Two Arden absolutely destroyed Tile Hill 2 by over 70 points, while Ernesford Eagles made it two from three at Trojans 3. Warwick Juniors crashed to their first defeat – by two at home to Westwood and RC Rebels triumphed over Stratford.

Nuneaton travelled to Tile Hill and, after a close game, managed to get ahead in the end to win by nine

DOUG – COACH OF THE YEAR

Congratulations to Doug Poultney – Head Coach of Arden Basketball Club, who has been named Coach of the Year by England Basketball. Doug has been at the helm at Arden since he founded the Club 25 years ago, and apart from the National League set-up he has created, he runs sessions for around 70 children each week in the village of Knowle where the Club is based.

LADIES GET FIRST TILE HILL WIN

Tile Hill Ladies – playing in the Leicestershire League, notched their Club's first victory as they beat Leicester University 41-36. Last year's Champions were downed thanks to an opening 14-0 burst from the Coventry side and some terrific defense. A late rally pulled them level, before Trojans hit the front late on. Meron Tesfayohannes top scored for Trojans with 14
