NEPTUNES KEEP 100% RECORD

Two wins in the week have taken Northampton to the top of Division One and they are the only side with a perfect record. They came at the hands of Premier Warriors and Warwick University. There was a double success too for Trojans who met Grace Academy (GAC) on Monday and Thursday and both games ended in a win for Tile Hill.

Aylesford came back to form at Onley with Coach Richard Curtis turning out in the navy strip to make up the six man squad who had enough in the bank to plunder the points.

An unbelievable turnaround at Nuneaton saw Knights overcome a 19-39 half time deficit, and take the game from Ernesford Eagles 47-44 – yes 47-44! Meanwhile it was business as usual at Warwick Juniors where Tile Hill 2 felt the wrath of John Mumford's team, as did Tile Hill 3 at Roger Casements where Scott Alford led the charge. With GAC at Tile Hill, Westwood took full advantage to beat Woodway with two free shots from Joe Livingston in the final minute, and Arden meet Stratford Tornados tonight.

ONLEY OUTLAWS – URGENT CHANGE

Onley Outlaws play on Sundays at 2pm.

Players and officials are reminded that they MUST be present by 1.15 latest in order to gain access to the prison ahead of the visitors.

In addition no mobile phones are allowed inside the gates.

Team lists MUST be e mailed to darren.brooks@hmps.gsi.gov.uk and copy gavin.sawbridge@hmps.gsi.gov.uk least two days prior to the game.

Martin Dundas in hospitalised after having knee surgery – we wish him a speedy recovery.

LADIES TOURNAMENT HAILED AS SUCCESS

The Warwickshire Basketball Ladies Tournament was held on Sunday at Hereward College, and the four team which took part thoroughly enjoyed the four hour session.

The winners were Tile Hill Young Trojans, with Leicester University runners-up.

There is another tournament planned for February/March subject to funding.

Thanks go to everyone who helped to make the day successful.

FIXTURE CHANGES - REMINDER

The Following fixture has been re-arranged:

B53 Woodway v Warwick Juniors is now Monday 15th February at 7.30 at Grace Academy

TIGERS DEFAULT ONLEY FIXTURE

Tamworth Tigers cannot raise a team due to other commitments for their re-arranged game at Onley next Sunday (A28) and have had to default the fixture. This means that the game is awarded to Onley 20-0.
